Coach is a young, energetic, P. E. teacher. He has a strong passion for physical education. Coach went to Kansas University and has never been around minorities unless it was in passing. He doesn't understand African American culture or the challenges minorities are faced with. However, coach has a love for all people and wants to make the world a better place. Sometimes, coach comes off as the needy, nieve, gym teacher because of his sheltered, suburban, white, up-bringing.
